THE SCHOOL'S LEGAL FRAMEWORK The Europese School Den Haag will have a status similar to that of other Dutch national schools that offer international education, and will receive a regular subsidy from the Ministry of Education like all other publicly-funded schools in the Netherlands. Apart from this regular subsidy, the School will receive a supplementary subsidy for international education, like all the Dutch publically funded schools that offer international education. The Dutch Ministry of Education will exercise its legal responsibility concerning pedagogical and administrative aspects. In compliance with Dutch Law, many responsibilities have been delegated to the Board of the School, i.e. the Executive Director(s) of the Rijnlands Lyceum Foundation, which, in compliance with Dutch Law, will delegate most responsibilities to the Principal, but will supervise the school with respect to finances, legal obligations and educational quality. The Board also acts as the formal employer of all staff. The Principal will be responsible for the proper organisation and the day-to-day management of the School. The School will be supervised by the Dutch Education Inspectorate. The Board of the School, i.e. the Executive Director(s) of the Rijnlands Lyceum Foundation, will have ultimate responsibility.

THE SCHOOL'S LEGAL FRAMEWORK According to the Basic Law of the Federal Republic of Germany, the entire German school system is placed under State control. That law guarantees the right of establishment of private schools and lays down that as schools replacing state (public sector) schools, private schools are subject to the award of accreditation by the State and are governed by local laws. By means of Official Gazette¹, the statute of the European Schools was incorporated into German law as from October 2004. In Germany, the European Schools therefore qualify for treatment equal to that of schools coming under public law.
