The new European School of Copenhagen will be part of Sankt Annæ Gymnasium, which consists of different departments: a primary school department, a choir school department and a high school department (Gymnasium in Danish). The new Sankt Annæ Campus (including the ESC) will be managed by the Campus Principal and a 'Campus Board'.

A Head of the European School of Copenhagen will be responsible, in collaboration with the principal of the Sankt Annæ Campus (who has overall responsibility), for running the ESC, and the Board of the European School of Copenhagen will be represented on the Campus Board. This strong linkage between the European School of Copenhagen and the other departments of Sankt Annæ Gymnasium means that the ESC will benefit from the experiences and network of Sankt Annæ Gymnasium. Sankt Annæ Gymnasium has a well-known reputation for a unique musical environment, very good academic results and an international profile with partner schools worldwide.

The Board also acts as the formal employer of all staff. The Principal will be responsible for the proper organisation and the day-to-day management of the School. THE SCHOOL'S LEGAL FRAMEWORK With the setting up of an International School in the south of the Country, the Ministry of Education is responding to the growing heterogeneity of the pupil population. It is the government's responsibility to offer a state education system in which each and every pupil has a chance of succeeding, whatever the language spoken at home. The legal background was approved by the Luxembourg Parliament on 26 February 2016: 'Loi portant creation d'une école internationale publique à Differdange'. Référence Mémorial –Journal officiel du Grand-Duché du Luxembourg document A-n°27 du 4 mars 2006. International education is already offered in state secondary schools in the centre of the country, but that was not the case in the south. Now the structural development of the economy in that part of the country and, the University of Luxembourg's relocation to Belval, has given rise to increased demand for children's schooling in international classes. The availability of high-quality education is an important factor in the decision of a company, of a foreign investor or of scientific experts as to whether or not to set up in Luxembourg. The Differdange and Esch-sur-Alzette International School (EIDE) is open to both children and young people from an immigrant background and any other pupils wishing to be educated in an international context. Its priority target are the children and young people of Differdange and Esch-sur-Alzette and of the south of the country in general. Over and above efforts to integrate foreign pupils who will be remaining in the country, offering a new International School matches the needs of young people who are temporarily resident in the Grand Duchy and who are expected to continue their education and/or embark on their career in a different country.

THE SCHOOL'S LEGAL FRAMEWORK

The education provided in the primary and secondary cycles largely follows the European Schools' regulations, whilst remaining within the legal framework of French state education.

Legally and administratively, the nursery and primary cycles form an autonomous state school. The City of Strasbourg discharges its usual responsibilities in terms of the premises, facilities, maintenance, general operation, catering and ancillary staff.

A new building, assembling all the cycles, has been constructed in the area where the European institutions are established. The new school was opened on 1 September 2015.

The Strasbourg school respects the principle of free education, whatever the type of pupils. Funding for the school, including cooperation exercises with the European Schools, is provided by Central Government and the local authorities.

THE SCHOOL'S LEGAL FRAMEWORK

With the setting up of an International School in the south-east of the Country, the Ministry of Education is responding to the growing heterogeneity of the pupil population. It is the government's responsibility to offer a state education system in which each and every pupil has a chance of succeeding, whatever the language spoken at home.

The legal background was approved by the Luxembourg Parliament on 13th July 2018: Loi du 13 juillet 2018 portant création d'un lycée à Mondorf-les-Bains.

International education is already offered in state secondary schools in the centre and the south of the country but that is not yet the case in the south-east. The availability of high-quality education is an important factor in the decision of a company, of a foreign investor or of scientific experts as to whether or not to set up in Luxembourg.

The Mondorf-les-Bains International School (EIDE) is open to both children and young people from an immigrant background and any other pupils wishing to be educated in an international context. Its priority target are the children and young people of Mondorf-les-Bains and of the south-east of the country in general. Over and above efforts to integrate foreign pupils who will be remaining in the country, offering a new International School matches the needs of young people who are temporarily resident in the Grand Duchy and who are expected to continue their education and/or embark on their career in a different country.
